

One week to go!

Welcome to the first event of 2019! With one week until Targa Hawkes Bay, I'm sure you're all eager for as much information as possible.

Therefore, maps are now available on our website for viewing!

Whether your competing or spectating, please be sure to check them out so you know where to find all the action!

Introducing new time cards

2019 is the year of change, and with that we would like to introduce you to the new time cards competitors will be using going forward.

We've included an explanation to assist you in the transition from the old time cards to the new - we recommend you read through the document so you're as prepared as you can be for next week.
